

Mas Laval

les pampres

---

Three generations have operated this 50-acre vineyard in the Languedoc town of Aniane. Each varietal undergoes separate vinification and aging for 6 months before they are blended and aged longer in large oak foudres. The “black velvet smoking jacket” of Languedoc reds! Beautiful nose, fresh and fruity. Nice aromas of cherry, ripe raspberry, blackberry, and spices.

Elegant!

Imported by Chartrand Imports, Rockland, ME